than the inferior coals of other regions, but the explanation lies in the environment. At any central point of common shipment, Conneltsville coke always commands the highest price, but the value of coke at the ovens depends largely upon the proximity of a market. Many of the Virginia and other coals find a market at nearby furnace at prices above those of the Conneltsville region but cheaper nevertheless to the furnace so located than Conneltsville coke plus the freight charges could possibly be.

The figures as to production indicate a floodtide of business. In spite of the sickening slump of the last three months of the year there was an increase in production for the year of 12 per cent and in prices of nearly 22 per cent.

The report indicates that the complete supremacy of the Conneltsville coke for so many years is being threatened nearly 11 per cent of the coke production of last year being made in by-product or retort ovens. Interest in improved ovens has materially quickened during the past year, and there are some types that are being installed in considerable numbers.

But the beehive ovens will hold its own for many years to come and Conneltsville will likewise continue to be the Center of Cokedom.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE WATER COMPANIES.

The Trotter Water Company is a subsidiary corporation to the H. C. Fick Coke Company, which is subsidiary to the Carnegie Steel Company, which is subsidiary to the United States Steel Corporation but such of them are separate corporations under separate management and with stockholders not necessarily or actually identical, and some of them, particularly the Trotter Water Company, does business with the public as well as with its holding corporation.

But what should a corporation like the H. C. Fick Coke Company or the Pennsylvania Railroad Company be compelled to create another corporation or corporations for the purpose of supplying themselves with water or any other matter of their business.

The corporation laws of Pennsylvania are peculiar to say the least and their peculiarities result in just such ridiculous entanglements as those in which the Trotter Water Company is now figuring.

The water company's litigation raises the question of the right of a corporation to own property in this country. The Pennsylvania Water and Electric Company, which is a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, has been ordered by the United States Supreme Court to divest itself of its water works in the State of New York. The court held that a corporation organized under the laws of one State cannot own property in another State.

SCOTSDALE MAN CUT BY PITCHER.

Sam Stineman and John Bundorf Furnish Work for Doctors.

ODD BUT EFFECTIVE WEAPON.

Stineman Says He Was Cut by Pitcher and Bundorf Claims Stineman Got
His Many Wounds by Jumping
Through a Window.

SCOTSDALE, Aug. 19.—Samuel Stineman and John Bundorf furnished some work for a doctor one policeman, two constables, the Burgess and two justices of the peace this week, and will furnish some more for the Westmoreland county courts a little later. They were brought before Burgess William Ferguson on Tuesday evening charged with fighting, and fined $10 and costs, which they both paid. The fight was on Monday night when Stineman says he found Bundorf visiting the former's wife and had trouble and fought it out. Bundorf admitted the same thing. Policeman Frank McCudden brought Stineman to the lockup about three o'clock and put him in. As he came out of the borough building he met Bundorf and told him that he was wanted. The latter told the big policeman that it would take a fight to get him. The latter put him behind the bars so forcibly that there was no argument as to what was being done. Both young men were bailed out. Stineman made a charge of aggravated assault and battery against Bundorf before Justice J. C. Steiner and Constable William Kannel served the warrant. Bundorf made a counter charge against Stineman before Justice H. C. Hubbs and Constable T. J. Hillespie served that warrant. Both men were again bailed for their appearance.

With his head bandaged so that he could not wear a hat, Stineman after Bundorf had entered a plea of not guilty before Squire Steiner, told his story this morning. He said that he and his wife were not living together at present and that he was paying her expenses until other arrangements could be made, and that Bundorf had been calling around and that his wife told him that she did not want him. Bundorf, hanging about her, he said, that he warned Bundorf to stay away and that if they came together there would be trouble. He went to the house where his wife was staying on Monday night and Bundorf came to the door and when he saw who it was, tried to shut the door. He got into the house and pursued Bundorf back to the dining room where he said Bundorf picked up a heavy glass pitcher and struck him over the head with it, cutting his head in several places and that finally the pitcher broke and with the handle and jagged end of the glass he was in about the shoulder and arms. Bundorf had a black eye and claimed that Stineman had jumped through a glass window and cut him self up on the glass. He said that he took the pitcher from Stineman and also denied that Stineman had ever told him to stay away from his wife who he said was a cousin and that he would go there whenever he pleased.

Dr. O. C. Engle, who dressed Stineman's wounds, was loath to testify but said that he knew nothing of the matter outside of the wounds. He being three deep ones on Stineman's head and deep cut on the shoulder and two on the arms, one of which was narrow and quite deep, revealing a blood vessel. He found Stineman very weak from loss of blood when he fixed him up. Bundorf was held for court in the sum of $100, which he secured within a few minutes. The case against Stineman at Justice Hubbs was delayed somewhat later in the day.

BIG RALLY.

Colored People of Both Counties to Meet at Scottdale.
SCOTSDALE, Aug. 19.—Tomorrow is the occasion of a big time for A. M. E. Zion Church in another effort in a great rally to pay off the church debt. As a star attraction they have secured Hon. John C. Drury, register of deeds of the District of Columbia, who holds an important office in a capable orator and well worth hearing since he is one of the foremost of the colored race. Hon. Silas A. Kilian of Greensburg is the other speaker, and his topic will be "Good Citizenship." There will be two bands and a big parade. The speaking at Ellsworth park will begin at 2 o'clock.

Drive Away Loafers.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 19.—Judge Umbeil has taken decided action against the loafers about the court house walls and yesterday gave James Collins, superintendent of the building instructions to clear them away. The County Commissioners and Sheriff P. A. Johns also took action and it is believed that there will be no more loafing and tobacco chewing about the building.

Violated Factory Law.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 19.—George Roth and C. W. Adams, who were keeping an unclean bake shop, were fined each $20 and costs by Justice D. M. Biers last evening. The prosecution was brought by Deputy Factory Inspector Morling.

LINEMAN DIES.

Abram Williams Succumbs to Injuries
Received in Fall of Cable.

MEYERSDALE, Pa., Aug. 19.—The funeral of Abram Williams, who died as the result of being thrown from the top of the construction car while stringing the cable for the Pennsylvania & Maryland Street Railway Company, Saturday evening, about four o'clock, was held at St. Mary's yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The deceased is survived by his wife who is a daughter of Esquire David Muller of West Salisbury, who with four children survive. Deceased is also survived by several nephews, among whom is William T. Williams who for many years conducted a livery business here and who is now engaged in the same business at Johnstown, Pa.

The pill bearers were the following: C. S. Lichter, clerk for the Merchants' Coal Company; William Bowman and G. W. May, two motormen of Boynton; Thomas Walker who was knocked off the car with deceased and Chas. W. Shanabarger, Superintendent of Electrical Construction, both of this place; and Irvin Engle, foreman of the Twelfth Century Lumber Works at Boynton. The service was presided over by Rev. Cousins, pastor of the Lutheran church of Salisbury. The funeral was one of the largest held in Salisbury for years.

SCHOOL TAXES.

For 1908 Will Have 5 Per Cent Added
After Next Saturday.

After next Saturday the citizens of Connellsville will not be granted the five per cent reduction allowed on the payment of school taxes on the duplicate for 1908. After that date, for a period of sixty days, the rate will be charged after which the per cent will be added to the taxes not paid.

The duplicate for the school taxes, which in Connellsville amounts to about $10,000, is not placed in the hands of the Tax Collector until the borough duplicate is given to him. As a result, people usually forget about the percentage they must give on the school taxes. The Tax Collector is not obliged to advertise the facts in the case, and since he collects only two per cent on taxes paid before the expiration of the first period named for reduction while he receives five per cent after that date, which will be standing if it is easy to see that it is not profitable for the Tax Collector to advertise the facts too widely.

The School Board is especially in need of money and it would no doubt be glad if as many as are able should settle their 1908 school taxes during this week.

TROTTER WATER COMPANY REPLIES.

pose of serving the public. The plaintiff also alleged that the defendant does not now and does not intend to serve the public in German township, alleging that it is operated in that territory exclusively for the purpose of supplying water to the H. C. Flick Coke Company, the capital stock of the water company the plaintiff asserts is owned by the Flick people.

In answer to this statement the defendant company maintains that it is the intention and purpose to supply water to all persons partnerships, associations and corporations, desiring the same within its territorial limits, it avers further that it has been and is now furnishing and supplying water to large numbers of consumers both individual and corporate within its territorial limits, including the township of German. And it avers that it is not a private corporation operated for the purpose of supplying water to any one person but that it serves the public and the public needs through out its entire territorial limits.

Hugh Coll, superintendent of the Trotter Water Company, makes the answer through Attorney D. H. Report counsel for the defense. Attorney Jones and Henderson are counsel for the plaintiff.

The killing which Hains avers was prompted by Annis' alleged attentions to the captain's beautiful wife was accomplished in the presence of Mrs. Annis and a large number of members of the fashionable Bayside Yacht Club. It recalls the fact that Hains' brother, Thornton Hains, a fiction and novelist, killed a man under somewhat similar circumstances at Port-au-Prince in 1901.

WRIGHT-METZLER COMPANY

A funny play was pulled off yesterday, which brought out a roaring crowd. The ball was extensively used. The same play occurred in Pittsburgh the other day in the catch lining price led off with a single. Montgomery sacrificed the third base man to second and Billam drove one to Houser who broke it down. Houser did not have a chance to catch it. The ball was thrown in after covering the ball he rushed in and touched "Smur". The rule covering this says that a base hit shall be scored when a fair hit ball is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in a motion, but such player cannot catch it. Still in time to field the ball to first before the striker reaches first base or to force another runner. Houser stopped the ball, but could not recover himself to field the ball to first before Billam reached base. Price was not forced, but was attempted to take a play on by being asked to be a fair chance. Scott was out. The score was 1-0 in the seventh game gave Wagner the hit, but afterwards changed it to 1-0.
